Suspect:	Nadra Lashawn Hampton, FB/42 DOB: 03-20-68 Booking #2881398 Injury: proximal fracture, (small fracture to outside portion of the knee joint), abrasions to the face
Date:	September 19, 2011 (Monday)
Time:	1400 hours
Location:	Century Regional Detention Facility (CRDF) 11705 Alameda Street Lynwood, CA. 90262

SYNOPSIS:

Internal Affairs Bureau assumed the investigation to a use of force, after learning the suspect suffered a fracture to the outside portion of her left knee. The incident occurred on September 19, 2011. However, personnel from the Century Regional Detention Facility (CRDF) did not become aware of the fracture until November 3, 2011(refer to Exhibit A, memo from Sergeant Devane to Captain Stacy Lee, employee #[redacted].

Suspect Hampton was arrested by Compton Station Deputy Antony Federico, #[redacted] for possession of a controlled substance. While she was detained in the back seat of the radio car, Suspect Hampton utilized both feet, and kicked the left rear window of the radio car, shattering it (refer to Exhibit B, SH-R-49 documenting arrest and Compton Traffic Sergeant Peter Ramirez', #[redacted] report documenting Suspect Hampton's vandalism to county property).

Suspect Hampton was transported to CRDF for booking and housing. Suspect Hampton was temporarily housed in Cell number three of the CRDF booking area. She began pounding loudly on the cell door, advising that she needed to use the restroom.

The suspect was very persistent that she was going to urinate on herself if they did not take her to the restroom very quickly. Deputy Detreville, #[redacted] opened the cell door, told the suspect to turn away from her, and to put her hands behind her back. The suspect complied. Deputy Detreville began to walk the suspect out of the cell, when the suspect pulled her arms out of Detreville's grasp. The suspect turned and faced toward Detreville, then put her hands up as if preparing to fight.

Deputy Detreville, as well as Deputy Abellano, #[redacted] and Deputy Sanchez, #[redacted] grabbed the suspect and performed a team takedown. The suspect landed face down on her stomach. Once on the ground, the suspect began moving her head back and forth while kicking her legs. The suspect nearly hit Deputy Detreville in the face with her head, so Deputy Detreville placed her knee on the suspect's cheek to hold her head down. The suspect continued to struggle, while her left cheek was pinned against the concrete floor.

Deputy Sanchez held the suspect's body down against the floor while Custody Assistant Elias, #[redacted] controlled her legs. They were then able to pull the suspect's arms from under her body, and with the help of Custody Assistant [redacted], #[redacted] handcuffed Suspect Hampton.

The suspect was escorted by the deputies to a "Sobering Cell," pending an interview by the CRDF Watch Commander, Lieutenant Ibelle #[redacted]

INVOLVED EMPLOYEES' STATEMENTS:

The following narratives are intended only as a synopsis of the interviews. Additional information and precise wording may be obtained by reviewing the recorded interview and verbatim transcript.

Deputy Audrey Detreville:

Deputy Detreville was interviewed on January 10, 2012, at CRDF, by Sergeant Laura Haynes, #[redacted] of the Internal Affairs Bureau. Deputy Detreville waived her right to have representation during the interview.

Deputy Detreville related essentially the same information she documented in her use of force memo (refer to Exhibit E).

Deputy Detreville said at the start of her shift, she could see and hear Suspect Hampton pounding on her cell door in Booking Front, yelling to use the restroom. Deputy Detreville told Suspect Hampton she would let her out to use the restroom as soon as she made relief with the day shift personnel. Deputy Detreville said Suspect Hampton continued to yell and pound on her cell door. Approximately five minutes later, Deputy Detreville had a chance to escort the suspect to the restroom. Deputy Detreville told Suspect Hampton to turn away from her, so she could control Suspect Hampton's movements, as she was escorted to the restroom. Deputy Detreville said Deputy Abellano was standing to her right, as backup, due to Suspect Hampton's belligerent demeanor. Once the cell door was open, she told Suspect Hampton to turn and face away from her. Deputy Detreville controlled Suspect Hampton's forearms, and began backing her out of the cell. Suspect Hampton spun out of Deputy Detreville's grasp, and with her arms up, and fists clenched by her face, appeared she was preparing to strike her.

Deputy Detreville grabbed Suspect Hampton's left arm, and Deputy Abellano grabbed the right arm. Deputy Sanchez also ran to assist. All three deputies controlled the suspect by taking her to the ground. Deputy Detreville said once the suspect was on the ground she began kicking and moving her head, almost striking Deputy Detreville in the face.

Deputy Detreville, while still controlling the suspect's left arm, placed her knee on the suspect's left cheek to control her head. Deputy Detreville pulled the suspect's left arm from underneath her body and placed it behind her back.

Deputy Abellano placed the right arm behind the suspect's back and she was handcuffed. Deputies escorted the suspect to the "Sobering Cell," where she remained until she was interviewed by the watch commander.

IAB Note: Deputy Detreville said during her interview she was not aware the suspect had previously vandalized a Sheriff's radio car during her arrest. She said, although the suspect was vocal, and pounding on her cell door, she did not perceive that behavior as rising to the level she could not control Suspect Hampton, with the backup that was available (Deputy Abellano).

IAB Note: "Sobering Cells" are utilized for person's arrested for drunk driving, and needing time to sober up prior to release. Additionally, these cells are utilized for isolating inmates, from other inmates, for fighting with each other or Sheriff's personnel.

Deputy Aaron Abellano:

Deputy Abellano, #[redacted] was interviewed on January 18, 2012, at the Internal Affairs Bureau Offices, by Sergeant Laura Haynes, and Sergeant Dinah Grote. Deputy Abellano was represented by Mitch Kander, of Green and Shinee.

Deputy Abellano essentially related the same information he documented in his use of force memo (refer to Exhibit F).

Deputy Abellano said when he started his shift on September 19, 2011, he recalled Compton deputies advising the booking area personnel that Suspect Hampton kicked out the rear window of their radio car, during her arrest. Deputy Abellano said Suspect Hampton was already in booking cell number three when he arrived.
He recalled Suspect Hampton yelling obscenities, and screaming that if she did not get to a restroom, she would urinate in the cell. Deputy Abellano said when Deputy Detreville advised she was escorting Suspect Hampton to the restroom, he assisted her by standing to the right, and slightly behind Deputy Detreville, providing back up.

Before opening the cell door, Deputy Abellano heard Deputy Detreville tell Suspect Hampton to turn around, face away from her, and place her hands behind her back. Deputy Abellano said Suspect Hampton complied with Deputy Detreville at that time. Deputy Detreville placed her hands on Suspect Hampton's forearms, controlling her, as she backed her out of booking cell number three. Once outside of the cell, Suspect Hampton spun around on Deputy Detreville and faced her, with both her fists in the air as if preparing to fight. Deputy Abellano said Deputy Detreville grabbed Suspect Hampton's left arm, and he grabbed her right arm.
With the help of Deputy Sanchez, who had arrived to assist, a team takedown of Suspect Hampton was performed. Suspect Hampton was taken to the ground to stop any assault on deputies. Deputy Abellano could not recall what Deputy Sanchez did after the takedown, nor could he recall Custody Assistant Elias', #[redacted] involvement.

Deputy Abellano maintained his control of Suspect Hampton's right arm, and Deputy Detreville maintained control of Suspect Hampton's left arm.

Deputy Abellano said he was able to handcuff the suspect, and she did not further attempt to assault the deputies.

The suspect was escorted to the female "Sobering Cell," where she remained without further incident.

Deputy Abellano said the entire incident, from the time Deputy Detreville went "hands on," to the time the suspect was handcuffed, was less than two minutes. He added, due to the close proximity of deputies, and other personnel in the Booking Front area, use of pepper spray would have contaminated the area, affecting all those present. Deputy Abellano said the incident happened so fast, and the deputies gained control of the suspect quickly, that only control holds and a takedown were necessary to gain control of the suspect.

Custody Assistant Axel Elias:

Custody Assistant Elias, #[redacted] was interviewed on December 14, 2011, at the Internal Affairs Bureau Offices, by Sergeant Laura Haynes. He was represented by Marlyne Rinaldi, of the Professional Peace Officers Association (PPOA).

Custody Assistant Elias related essentially the same information he documented in his use of force memo (refer to Exhibit G).

Custody Assistant Elias said he was working Booking Front when he saw Suspect Hampton in a fighting stance, facing Deputy Detreville.
Custody Assistant Elias said he saw Suspect Hampton moving her arms in what he perceived was an attempt to "strike" Deputy Detreville. Custody Assistant Elias said he ran to Deputy Detreville's location.

Custody Assistant Elias said after he saw Suspect Hampton attempting to "strike" Deputy Detreville, Deputy Detreville grabbed the suspect's left arm. Deputy Abellano grabbed the suspect's right arm, and Deputy Sanchez, "grabbed the back of her shirt." All three deputies took the suspect face down to the ground. Custody Assistant Elias said once the suspect was on the ground, "she was struggling to break free of the deputy's grasp."

Custody Assistant Elias said Suspect Hampton was "cursing" at the deputies, and yelling to "let her go." Suspect Hampton continued to fight against the deputies, while kicking her legs. Custody Assistant Elias said he controlled Suspect Hampton's legs by crossing the suspect's right leg over her left, and held her there until Deputy Abellano safely handcuffed the suspect.

The suspect was assisted to her feet, and walked to the "Sobering Cell," where she remained without further incident.

Custody Assistant [redacted]

Custody Assistant [redacted]#[redacted] was interviewed on March 21, 2012, at the Internal Affairs Bureau Offices, by Sergeant Laura Haynes and Sergeant Dinah Grote. She was represented by Erica Gurrola of Green and Shinee.

Custody Assistant [redacted] related essentially the same information as documented in her use of force Memo (refer to Exhibit H).

Custody Assistant [redacted] said she was standing behind the officers' desk in the booking area, when she saw Deputies Detreville, Abellano, and Custody Assistant Elias, on the floor, holding down Suspect Hampton. She ran to assist, and saw Deputy Abellano had successfully handcuffed Suspect Hampton's right wrist. Deputy Detreville was controlling Suspect Hampton's left arm. Custody Assistant [redacted] said she did not want Deputy Detreville to lose control of the suspect's left arm, so she ([redacted] grabbed the loose handcuff and handcuffed Suspect Hampton.

Custody Assistant [redacted] watched as Suspect Hampton was assisted to her feet by the deputies. Deputies Detreville and Abellano held Suspect Hampton by each arm, and escorted her to the "Sobering Cell" in the booking area. Deputy Sanchez and Custody Assistant Elias walked behind Suspect Hampton. Suspect Hampton was placed in the cell without further incident.

Deputy Jose Sanchez:

Deputy Sanchez was [redacted] from the Los Angeles County Sheriffs' Department involving an [redacted] He was not interviewed regarding this use of force (refer to Exhibit I, for use of force memo).

NON-EMPLOYEE WITNESS:

Inmate (Witness) [redacted] Booking # [redacted]

Witness [redacted] was interviewed on September 19, 2011, at the CRDF booking area, by Sergeant Devane, #[redacted] Witness [redacted] was a trustee who was working in Booking Front, sitting at a table next to where the force incident occurred outside booking cell number three.

Witness [redacted] stated that Suspect Hampton was "banging" on the phone and cell door, yelling that she needed to use the restroom. Witness [redacted] heard Deputy Detreville tell Suspect Hampton to quiet down, then she will let her use the restroom. Witness [redacted] said she later heard Deputy Detreville tell Suspect Hampton to turn around, put her hands behind her back, and interlace her fingers.
Witness [redacted] saw Deputy Detreville open the cell door, grab Suspect Hampton by the back of both of her arms, and escort her out of the cell.

Witness [redacted] said Suspect Hampton walked backward out of the cell, then quickly turned toward Deputy Detreville, and "swung her arms at her." Witness [redacted] said Suspect Hampton was not in handcuffs at the time she was swinging her arms at Deputy Detreville. Witness [redacted] said it appeared to her that Suspect Hampton was attempting to fight with Deputy Detreville, and other deputies from Booking Front ran over to help.

Witness [redacted] said the deputies took Suspect Hampton to the ground, then handcuffed her. Witness [redacted] said she heard the deputies ask Suspect Hampton if she was going to walk, or were they going to have to drag her to the "sobering" cell. Witness [redacted] said Suspect Hampton initially did not want to get up, but then she stood up and walked to the "Sobering Cell." Witness [redacted] said the deputies were holding Suspect Hampton under each arm, as they walked her to the "Sobering Cell."

SUSPECT STATEMENT:

Suspect Hampton was interviewed, on videotape, on September 19, 2011, by Sergeant Devane, in the "Sobering Cell" (refer to Miscellaneous Documents for DVD containing interview). Suspect Hampton was asked about the incident with the involved deputies.

Suspect Hampton said she did not want the booking deputy to put her wristband on, because she was upset and needed to use the restroom. She said she was detained in the back of a patrol car for a long time, and needed to go to the restroom.
Suspect Hampton said she asked the CRDF deputy, (Detreville) if she could use the restroom, and the deputy said she would let her go in a few minutes.
Suspect Hampton said Deputy Detreville waited thirty minutes, then finally let her use the restroom. Suspect Hampton said, "I don't know if I was handcuffed or not when she told me to back up so she could let me use the bathroom. She then put the handcuffs on me with an attitude, so I "choked" away from her." Suspect Hampton was asked to clarify what "choked" away meant. Suspect Hampton explained she "pulled away" from the deputy. When Deputy Detreville tried to grab her again, she turned to face Deputy Detreville, then they all went down to the ground.

> IAB Note: During her interview with Sergeant Devane, Suspect Hampton wanted to discuss her arrest charge, and admitted to kicking out the patrol car window. Sergeant Devane told Suspect Hampton she was there to discuss what happened with the Booking Front deputies. Suspect Hampton admitted to pulling away from the deputies, but could not give specifics on how she was taken to the ground.

Once on the ground, Suspect Hampton said one deputy put their knee on her face, another deputy had a knee on the other side of her face, and another deputy was kneeing her numerous times in the right cheek. Suspect Hampton originally said she was handcuffed while she was on the ground. She then gave a different account, and said she was handcuffed since she arrived from Compton. Suspect Hampton said the deputies then dragged her to the holding cell.

On September 19, 2011, Watch Commander, Lieutenant Ibelle, #[redacted] interviewed Suspect Hampton in the "Sobering Cell" of the booking area. Suspect Hampton told Lieutenant Ibelle a similar account as to what she told Sergeant Devane. Suspect Hampton was still unsure if she was handcuffed prior to the incident, or handcuffed by Deputy Detreville before the incident occurred. Then she said she was already in handcuffs as she entered the facility, and remained handcuffed.

Suspect Hampton originally said she complied with Deputy Detreville's orders to put her hands behind her back and walk out of the cell. Suspect Hampton said when Deputy Detreville gave her orders she had said it with "an attitude". Suspect Hampton said, "If you are going to treat an inmate like that, you are gonna do your job, we are going to do our job too." She added, "Inmates do not care about handcuffs, it is the way the deputy puts the handcuffs on." Suspect Hampton said that she pulled away from Deputy Detreville, and said "That's all it takes in here." She said she knew it was wrong to pull away from a deputy and turn on them. She said she was not trying to beat the deputy up, but she "did what she had to do" because the deputy grabbed her arm.
